

Excursion to Cefalù and the splendid Fortress

Departure from Palermo or another point to agree on

Welcome to one of the most charming country town of northern Sicily: the splendid seafaring village of Cefalù; this exceptional tour is conceived right for you: you will discover this little country town at the foot of Madonie's natural park and of fortress that rises above it.

At about 70 km from Palermo, Cefalù is situated along Sicily's northern coast with a characteristic rock a rising above, the very famous Cefalù's fortress or "Hercule's headland"; here , according to the myth , there was the building that the demigod erected to pay homage his father Jupiter.

The journey starts by climbing the Fortress, where you can visit the ruins of past settlements, the famous Diana's temple and the Castle with its megalithic walls . Moreover, from the Fortress ,you will enjoy a breath breaking sight of Cefalù and the coast that goes from Capo Gallo (Palermo) to Capo D'Orlando (Messina).

Descending from the Fortress, the visit continues with Cefalù's historic centre where spending free time and visit Cefalù's cathedral , that belongs to the Arabian-Norman UNESCO's world heritage with its magnificent medieval mosaics and medieval wash-houses ; we will walk together across historic centre's streets until the shore , where there's a splendid path in the reefs.
